

State Mississippi

METHODS OF PROVIDING TRANSPORTATION

The State Agency will assure necessary transportation of recipients to and from providers of services through the following methods:

Emergency Ambulance Service. An emergency is defined as any ambulance service determined to be medically necessary as certified by a physician or law enforcement officer at the scene of the accident. Ambulance services are further limited to trips to or from a hospital or nursing home.

Necessary transportation for eligible Medicaid recipients to obtain medical care from qualified providers of services is provided upon certification through provider arrangements with the State Department of Public Welfare.
